A Study Conducted by the Montana State Bar Association in conjunction with the
Equal Justice Task Force and Access to Justice Committee

Acknowledgements

This study was made possible by the generous financial support of the Montana Justice Foundation, Montana Board of Crime Control, the State Bar of Montana and Attorneys Liability Protection Society (ALPS), LSC, Montana Advocacy Program, Montana School of Law, Court Assessment Program, Child and Family Section of the State Bar, Federal Practice Section of the State Bar of Montana and the Montana Office of Public Instruction.

This study could not have been completed without the contribution of substantial time from the 182 volunteer surveyors who conducted over 850 interviews in every part of the state of Montana.

The authors would like to thank Professor Grant Farr and the Department of Sociology at Portland State University for their wisdom and support in this project.

Acknowledgment is due to members of the oversight committee, comprised of members of the Montana Supreme Court Equal Justice Task Force and State Bar of Montana's Access to Justice Committee, with staff support from State Bar and Americorp VISTAs.

Most of all, we thank the low income Montanans who took time out of often busy and difficult lives to share their stories and experiences.

For further information regarding the study or report, contact Ann Gilkey, Equal Justice Coordinator, State Bar of Montana at (406) 442-7660 or agilkey@montanabar.org. The report is also available online at www.montanabar.org.
